

The Center for Teaching Excellence and
The Center for International Studies present

Infusing International Experiences into the Curriculum

Brazil and India and the Dilemmas of Development

Dr. Nicholas Longo and
Dr. Keith Morton

Public & Community Service Studies

As part of the PC International Education Week, Profs. Keith Morton and Nick Longo will present on their participation in faculty seminars in Brazil and India this past summer. They will discuss especially the favelas in Rio and the massive urbanization in Mumbai. The presentation will also include a faculty conversation on how to better incorporate international dimensions into the PC curriculum, using these case studies as a starting point.

Wednesday, October 2nd, 2013
12:00-1:30pm, Feinstein 304

Please RSVP to ext. 1340 or cte@providence.edu by September 27th.
All faculty and staff are invited. Lunch will be provided.