Scoring Guides, Checklists, and Rubrics – Oh My!

Dr. Anne Porter, Assistant Professor of English
Will Toner, Assistant Director, the PC Writing Center

Evaluating student writing can seem overwhelming, but building evaluative instruments that reflect our values can help us to communicate our expectations to students more intentionally. In this session, workshop facilitators will offer examples of three commonly used methods for scoring writing and invite participants to consider how they might tailor these methods to their own assignments.

If you are a person with a disability and require an assistive device, service, or other accommodation to participate, please contact the Central Reservations Coordinator (401-865-2070; M-F 8:30a.m. – 4:30p.m.) well in advance of this event.
