

The PC Writing Center Faculty Luncheon Series
Spring 2016

What Makes Writing Good?

Dr. Anne Porter, Assistant Professor of English
Will Toner, Assistant Director, the PC Writing Center

In this workshop, we will explore how instructors across and within various disciplines evaluate writing. What common values inform our judgments about writing? And how might the assessment of writing vary by instructor, discipline, and genre? We will ground our conversation in a participatory review session of a sample student paper, followed by lunch. Please join us!
