

The PC Writing Center Faculty Luncheon Series
Fall 2016

Prioritizing Process in Writing Assignment Design

Dr. Bryan Marinelli, Director of Academic Support Services
Dr. Jessica Tabak, Visiting Assistant Professor of English

Process-driven writing promotes healthy student writing habits and produces better student writing. But how do we transform a product-oriented assignment into a process-oriented one? Participants will leave this workshop with ideas for integrating the writing process into an assignment of their own.
