

The Center for Teaching Excellence presents

Adapting to wearing a mask in the classroom

Thursday,
September 24, 2020
1:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Facilitated by:
Megan Chang,
Assistant Professor of Voice and Speech and CTE Fellow for Oral Communication

Fall 2020 has brought a lot of changes. Though a vital safety measure, masks affect our day-to-day communication. Join us for a workshop exploring how we can adapt to wearing a face covering while teaching in the physical classroom, as well as how we can teach our students to give classroom presentations while wearing a face covering.
