

The Center for Teaching Excellence presents

The New Nimble

Presenter: José Antonio Bowen, PhD, FRSA

We got to see a different side of our students and of ourselves during the pandemic. After a forced reimagining of our pedagogy, campus experience, equity, use of technology, and costs, what did we learn? As we prepare for more uncertainty, what best practices from the last year do we need to sustain? Can we use what we have learned to build more engaging and inclusive classrooms, create community and reimagine our pedagogy for a new age? Can we “nudge” our students to do more work using Relationships, Resilience and Reflection? There will never be a better moment to improve the quality and equity of our teaching.

José Antonio Bowen has taught at Stanford and Georgetown, was a dean at Southern Methodist University and President of Goucher College.
